Coach Johnson begins her 17th season with the Lady Mustangs Basketball program (396-145) and 21st as a Community College Head Coach (481-182). The Lady Mustangs have been a program to contend with since Coach Johnson took over in 1996 and led the Mustangs to their first Bay Valley Conference title in 1997. Under Coach Johnson, the Mustangs have qualified for postseason competition in all fifteen seasons as head coach. The Mustangs have played in three California State Final Fours in the past ten years advancing to two State Championship games in 2006 and 2009 and winning the Conference ten times since 1997.

Coach Johnson is excited to teach young players at camp because skills and fundamentals are the key to personal improvement as a basketball player. She is a strong believer that young players learn through hard work and repetition. The Delta College basketball camps are an important part of our program. Some of the campers at our camps may be Delta Mustangs or College players in the future. Coach Johnson and her staff are excited to extend their enthusiasm and coaching to the girls and boys in the community.
