

San Joaquin Delta College
Fashion Merchandising & Design Department

For more info, please contact:

Leslie Asfour
Fashion Program Director
Phone: 209.954.5573
lasfour@deltacollege.edu
5151 Pacific Avenue
Stockton, CA 95207

MEDIA RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Spring Art & Gift Fair Is Here!

Stockton, CA, February 21, 2014 – Spring is here again shoppers, and you know what that means? It's time for San Joaquin Delta College's Semi-Annual Art & Gift Fair hosted by Delta College's Fashion Program! Get your shopping bags ready because on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 4th and 5th from 9am-2pm, Danner Hall on the Delta College campus will be filled with many wonderful artisans, selling amazing products. This event not only helps raise support for the Fashion program students, but it also it supports local and non-local vendors.

The semi-annul Art & Gift Fair features incredible handcrafted and one-of-a-kind items such as fine, semi-precious, and vintage jewelry, handmade scarves, beautiful handbags and other eye-catching accessories. And, that's not all: the fair also includes beautifully handcrafted soaps, lovely lotions, wonderful smelling candles and fragrances. One of the more interesting vendors returning is MagicSenses, a company started by locals Michael and Betty Miller. This pair of artisans hand makes glycerin soaps and lotions, crafted with quality and love. Another vendor everyone enjoys is Wristy Business started by Marsha Gonsalves. She crafts stylish jewelry from vintage silverware. Her product line consists of necklaces fashioned out of spoon handles, rings crafted out of forks, and gorgeous jewel embroidered bracelets. Favorite vendors include Muriel Scarlotta with her cash-and-carry Tupperware, Raquel McFarland of All Tangled accessories, Minnie and Myrna's Pomegranate Jam, Sam and Betty's Sterling Silver Jewelry, Karyn Kambur's handbags by StyleKade and customizable jewelry by JewelKade, Miche bags, Nokaioi Hawaiian jewelry and lotions and Origami Owl Jewelry. This event has something for everybody ranging from exclusive home décor products to spectacular skin care products and so much more.

The Art & Gift Fair is free and open to the public. We are located at 5151 Pacific Ave, San Joaquin Delta College; Danner Hall, in Stockton CA. Parking is $2 at the yellow meter. For Maps of the campus visit www.deltacollege.edu

San Joaquin Delta College's Fashion Club encourage all to come and support these incredible vendors, as well as to enjoy an exciting day of shopping!

"I stop by every semester, because they always have such amazing things! I get all my jewelry here and I absolutely love the soaps and candles." – Nikiann Acevedo

"The Spring Art & Gift Fair is so much fun! There is always something new to see and buy. I make sure to come through Danner Hall to pick up some great gifts for all my friends!" – Britney Nicole Howard

###

San Joaquin Delta College
 Fashion Program's semi-annual Art & Gift Fair is an event not to be missed. It supports not only fashion students, but also local and non-local artisan!
 Products sold are hand-crafted,
 on-of-a-kind, semi-precious
 items of all kinds.

