English translation:

When I die I want your hands on my eyes: I want the light and the wheat of your beloved hands to pass their freshness over me one more time to feel the smoothness that changed my destiny.

I want you to live while I wait for you, asleep, I want for your ears to go on hearing the wind, for you to smell the sea that we loved together and for you to go on walking the sand where we walked.

I want for what I love to go on living and as for you I loved you and sang you above everything, for that, go on flowering, flowery one, so that you reach all that my love orders for you, so that my shadow passes through your hair, so that they know by this the reason for my Song.

The Lord's Prayer Albert Hay Malotte (1895-1964)
Ric Campero, tenor Matt Baer, pianist

Faculty Speaker Kathleen Bruce

Please stand and join us in song

Shine On Me..... Rollo Dilworth (b. 1970)

--Germán Aguilar

Germán Andrés Aguilar has been Director of Choral and Vocal Activities at San Joaquin Delta College where he conducted three choirs, coordinated the applied music program and taught courses in music history, theory, and musical theater. Additionally, he is the founding director of the Valley Youth Chamber Choir in Stockton, California. He has been the associate director of the Stockton Chorale and Master Chorale of Flagstaff, in demand as clinician and adjudicator, and has always continued to sing as chorister and featured soloist. Mr. Aguilar earned three degrees with honors from Northern Arizona University and also studied choral conducting at the graduate level at California State University Los Angeles. In 2010, he was named the Outstanding Graduate Student in Music at Northern Arizona University.

Your Soul Is Song

Sing!

*When the seams burst, And the traps ensnare,
And your body breaks, And the light flees--*

Sing then!

For then, your soul is song.

~ Germán Aguilar

Germán's recipe for having a good day:

Twelve ounces of real, caffeinated coffee.

Thirty minutes of exercise.

Allow yourself to feel any feeling that needs feeling, but don't overdo it.

Find things to laugh about.

Give yourself credit where you deserve it.

Be still for stretches of time.

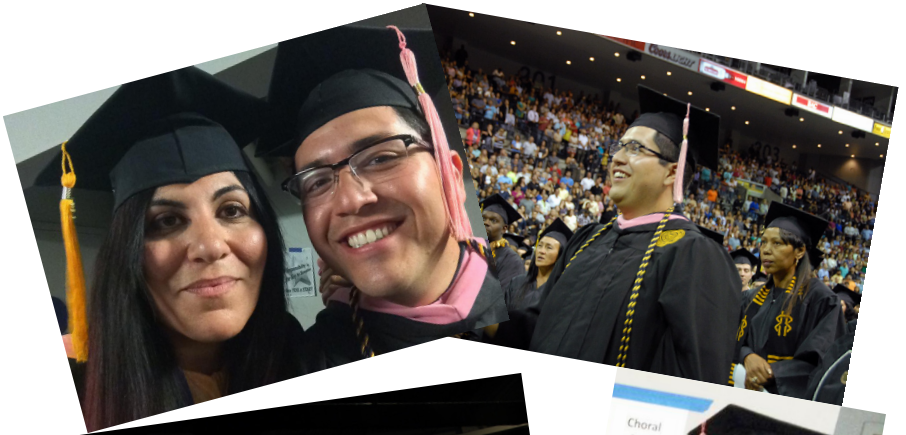

Breathe.

One gains ultimate power over a terrible experience when he turns it around and uses it for the good of others.

--Germán Aguilar

Shine on Me

Traditional Spiritual

Vocals

Intro.

Shine on me. Shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me. Oh shine on me. Shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me. Shine on me. Oh shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me. Oh, shine on me. Oh shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me. Shine on me. Oh, shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me. Oh, shine on me. Oh, shine on me. I won-der if the light-house will shine on me?.
